

Who we are

Hamburg Commercial Bank focuses, primarily in the northern and metropolitan areas of Germany, on business with corporate clients, real estate clients and clients in upmarket wealth management as well as savings banks. Internationally, the focus is on corporate clients in the areas of shipping as well as energy and infrastructure. The bank's Corporate Finance, M&A department – formerly known as HSH Corporate Finance GmbH – is a mid-market M&A specialist with a total of more than 120 successfully closed transactions since incorporation in 2002. With a team of 10 experienced professionals, we offer advisory services covering all areas of M&A, including acquisition- ("buy-side") as well as sale- and divestiture- ("sell-side") advice.

For our office in Hamburg, Germany we are year-round offering

M&A Internships / Student apprenticeships

Job description

During your internship you support our experienced and dynamic team on live mandates and pitch situations. You will gain hands-on exposure to all main aspects of our day-to-day business. The variety of tasks will give you the opportunity to apply your broad theoretical knowledge and to make a valuable contribution to the success of our company. As of day one, you are directly involved in projects and execute your tasks together with our junior team members as well as our senior staff. Your tasks will include:

- Preparation of client presentations, pitch books, information memoranda and data rooms
- Company and industry research
- Preparation of financial analysis
- Support in company valuation (DCF and multiple analysis)

Your profile

Besides having an excellent first degree (Bachelor) in business, economics or law you are an enthusiastic, dynamic team player with a solid understanding of economic aspects and strong communication skills. In addition, you are familiar with MS Office. As a significant part of our transactions involve German clients, extensive German language skills are indispensable.

We believe an internship between 12 weeks and 6 month period of time would be most beneficial.

What we offer

- Integral part of a young and professional team
- Steep learning curve
- Challenging environment
- Appealing remuneration
