

Prof. Dr. Eva-Maria Wild (née Oppel)

* 03/06/1987 in Gräfelfing

Stages of academic training

09/16	PhD in business administration at the University of Hamburg (Dr. rer. oec.)
10/11-10/13	Master of Science in business administration at the University of Hamburg
10/07-05/11	Bachelor of Science in business administration at the Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität Munich

Stages of scientific work

since 03/18	Assistant Professor of Business Administration, Department of Health Care Management, University of Hamburg
10/16-02/18	Post-Doc; Hamburg Center for Health Economics, University of Hamburg
03/17	Visiting Researcher at Center for Future Leadership and Work, St. Gallen, Switzerland (Prof. Heike Bruch)
04/16	Visiting Researcher at Peking University PKU, China Center for Health Economic Research (CCHER), Beijing, China (Prof. Gordon G. Liu)
05/15-11/15	Visiting Researcher (Fulbright grant) at Northeastern University, Center for Health Policy & Healthcare Research, Boston, USA. (Prof. Gary Young)
10/11-10/13	Research Assistant, Hamburg Center for Health Economics, University of Hamburg
10/09-06/10	Research Assistant, Research Center for Environmental Health, Helmholtz Zentrum, Munich

Awards and fellowships

2016	Research scholarship from German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD)
2015	Research scholarship German-American Fulbright Program

Affiliations and memberships

Member, Relational Coordination Research Collaborative (RCRC)
Member, Academy of Management (AOM)
Member, International Health Economics Association (iHEA)
Member, German Academic Association for Business Research (VHB)
Member, European Group for Organizational Studies (EGOS)

Affiliate, Northeastern University, Center for Health Policy & Healthcare Research, USA
Affiliate, Center for Future Leadership and Work, St. Gallen, Switzerland
Affiliate, Center for Healthcare Organization & Implementation Research, VHA, Boston, USA